

Planner: James McCormack - Controller: Alison Comer

The weather gods weren't kind to us this evening. Arriving at 4pm just as the rain started and it didn't relent all evening. Still didn't deter a number of people joining us at an old favourite of Cornwall Park. Coming in from the Hadyn Ave end always results in a difficult start for all courses and the wet ground made for some difficult hill and field running.

Excellent course setting from James McCormack, ably controlled by Alison Comer. James even managed a fantastic long route choice towards the end of Course 1 that had a number of differing responses from many parties.

Was great to see the St Georges/Epsom Scout Group out on the course in hardy weather and helping out in the control collection at the end. On to Craigavon next Tuesday evening and the multiple levels of trickery around the parks of Blockhouse Bay and surrounding areas.

See you then.
